

Setting the Standard

Quantum's highly acclaimed multi-modal Forwarding solution has been designed and developed with industry specialists, with whom Quantum has collaborated to define an effective winning strategy !

Q - FOR

Forwarding, NVOCC, Logistics, Consolidation

" Collyer Logistics evaluated and found Quantum's Q-FOR system a perfect match for our diversified multi-continental forwarding & logistics business. The ability of the system to cater to most all business requirements was exceptional as was the speed and positive enthusiasm with which Quantum's team could respond to new requirements and user sensitivities"

Andy Russell

MD, Collyer Logistics.

" Quantum and their application suite have placed themselves a significant distance ahead of their competitors, and this is due to the fact that their application suite has been built with an innate business knowledge with client collaboration and participation. They have also gained a quantum leap over any other vendor of similar systems with the integration of their Business Intelligence product Qi-LogiCon.

Logistics World

"We engaged with Quantum due to the uniqueness of their offering especially Business Intelligence. Further we have found that their process maturity and compliance is to the highest industry norms that mitigates our risks"
