Q - NVO

Non-Vessel Operators ERP Solution

"The Q-NVO is an innovative product that is evidently designed by people who know the business. Quantum has further more proven exceptionally well organized and professional by emphatically and proactively gaining understanding of our unique business niche and proposing sustainable innovative solutions thereby adding value and speed to the entire process."

Carlos Ip

General Manager, WM Container Line

"Quantum significantly enhanced our operating capabilities and our strategic and tactical decision making. Q-NVO had a major impact on the quality and satisfaction that our customers receive and thereby reflects in our brand equity."

Walter Wildoer

Line Manager, Seatrade

"The solution presented by Quantum has been well received by our Group and users, and so were there innovative solutions to our business needs. We have also seen the ability to develop further applications for our needs."

John Seymor
